Human Rights Information and Training Center (hritc) called for a speedy disclosure of facts about the events in Beirut and respect for human rights.

A statement issued by the Center confirmed today that what happened is a crime against humanity and a catastrophe that goes beyond the mere explosion of warehouses in Beirut Port to a comprehensive explosion of the conditions of Lebanon. Which will entail radical changes at the country and region levels and the cost will be high until peace returns to Lebanon, which requires strengthening the state of law Respect for institutions, the first of which is to strengthen the course of human rights and not to resort to force.
